The Buddha of Suburbia

By Hanif Kureishi

Recommended for Classes 9 to 12

A wonderful first novel by the author. Best comic novels of growing up, and one of the sharpest satires on race relations in England. Story of a teenager desperate to escape suburban South London. He starts to win the sort of attention which he has been craving for – with rude and raucous results.

The Mosquito Coast

By Paul Theroux

Fiction

Enormously exciting magnificently stimulating and as appressive and powerful as its central character. Allie Fox abandons civilization in modern America and takes the family to live in the Honduran Jungle.
The Armchair Economist

By Steven S. Landsburg
Recommended for Classes 9 to 12

The author has done expounded basic economic principles with ‘wit and verve’. It includes contemporary applications of the economic theory with emphasis on today’s concerns, including political strategies.

Vaastu of Architecture and design

By Sashikala Ananth

General Book

Today people expect Vaastu application to provide them instant cures and unending prosperity by relocating an entrance, window or room. It is of immense value to Vaastu consult art and architecture students alike.
Stress Control

By Susan Balfour
General Book

The author gives alternative ways of approaching and thinking about life and it’s challenges, and suggests simple solutions which can be applied to modern problems.

Space Today

By Mohan Sundara Rajan
Recommended for Classes 11 to 12

A non-technical presentation of the most significant recent developments in space technology and applications in India & abroad. Including India’s mastery of rockets & missile technology, amazing features of the earth etc.
A Marathi Saga

By Yashodabai Joshi
Recommended for Classes 11 to 12

This is a story that spans 80 years of the rise and fall of the Raj. The story of Sir Moropant and lady Yashodabai Joshi is a fascinating and a rare autobiography. It is history as told by an eyewitness.

From Coin to Credit Cards

By K.V. Singh
Recommended for Classes 9 to 12

The book contains the journey of money, birth of coins in India, modern-Indian mints India’s paper money and finally credit cards & electronic money.
Economics Explained

By Robert Heilbroner
Recommended for Classes 9 to 12

The book contains the concepts related to economics in detail. Macro and Micro Economics are also explained with various sub titles/lessons under their. The book also political and social choices, globalized capitalism and much more.

Chanakya Niti Kautilya
Arthashastra

By Shrikant Prasoon
Recommended for Classes 11 to 12

This book gives a vivid description of Chanakya’s doctrine, as written in his famous book, Arthashastra. There are 17 chapters in the book. The book also has salient and interesting incidents from Chanakya’s life along with attractive illustrations.
Battle hymn of the Tiger Mother

By Amy Chua
Recommended for Classes 9 to 12

This is a story about a mother, two daughter and two dogs. Courageous, thought-provoking and funny, the story describes a bitter clash of cultures and a fleeting taste of glory. It is an honest memoir of the author’s willingness to share her struggles and her priorities. A peak into the lives of a Chinese-Jewish-American family, the book makes for an interesting read.
The Great Railway Bazaar

By Paul Theroux
Recommended for Classes 10 to 12

The book is an account of the author’s epic journey by rail through Asia. Filled with evocative names of legendary train routes, it describes the many places, cultures, sights and sounds he experiences and the fascinating people he meets. It is an entertaining travelogue that pays loving tribute to the joys of railways and train travel.

The Last War

By Sandipan Deb
Recommended for Classes 9 to 12

A modern-day version of the Mahabharata, the book is a page-turning account of brothers in arms and families at war. The story is set in the gritty expanse of India’s most dynamic city, Mumbai, and tells how loyalties are tested, blood is drawn and how only ‘dharma’ can justify the means to a devastating end.
The Book of Gold Leaves

By Mirza Waheed
Recommended for Classes 10 to 12

Set in the Kashmir of 1990s, that simmered with political strife and rebellion, it is an age-old tale of love, war, duty and choice. It is a devastatingly resonant and a beautifully written story of two lovers who are destined to meet in the city of Srinagar and how the city they call home is besieged and engulfed in violence.

Mathematics Laboratory Manual

By NCERT
Recommended for Classes 9 to 10

Based on mathematics curriculum for IX-X. 66 activities are given in this manual including general experiments.
The Man who Knew Infinity

- By Robert Kanigel
  Recommended for Classes 8 to 12

This is a fascinating biography of the brilliant Indian Mathematician, Srinivasa Ramanujan. The book talks about the cross-cultural collaboration between Ramanujan and his mentor at Cambridge University, G.H. Hardy. The author tells this extraordinary tale, assessing the legacy of self-taught Indian mathematical genius. The book is fascinating and inspiring.

Pitch It

- By NCERT
  Recommended for Classes 9 to 10

This is an innovative and delightful book consisting of enthralling anecdotes, linking top cricketing giants and corporate moghuls, that will act as a catalyst for professionals to soar to top echelons in their respective fields. Crisp and candid, the book is a must-read for all cricket lovers, as it talks about ethics, teamwork, leadership and attitude.
Maharana Pratap

- By Rajender Shankar Bhatt
- Recommended for Classes 8 to 12

In this book author has presented the importance of the life of Maharana Pratap. He has taken great ease to write complete truth about his life.

---

Hum Bhrashtan Ke Bhrasht Hamare

- By Shard Joshi
- Recommended for Classes 9 to 12

Humorous and funny anecdotes written in the backdrop of present political and social set-up. An apt political satire which enhances its importance in today’s scenario.
Romp in Numberland

By P.K. Srinivasan
Recommended for Classes 5 to 8

It is an attempt to show how children can enter the threshold of fascinating world of numbers by using simple skills and imaginative faculties.

The Joy of Mathematics

By Sumita Bose
Recommended for Classes 5 to 8

The book has presented the so called dry contents of mathematics in a fun and enjoyable manner. It contains thought provoking puzzles, mathematical jokes, math magic, games & activities etc.
The Singapore Kid

By Jessica Alejandro
Recommended for Classes 5 to 7

An interesting story line and contains 10 chapters. A brilliantly written piece about an 11 year old boy growing up in affluent Singapore and his life that becomes roller coaster ride of fun, quirks, suspense, sadness and very strange. This book evokes both tears and laughter.

Indira Priyadarshni

By Manorama Zafaa
Recommended for Classes 6 to 8

The book is about Indira Gandhi and her life. The book talks about her achievements and shows various shades of her life.
Children Who Made It Big

- By Thangamani
  Recommended for Classes 5 to 7

The book gives short accounts of the lives of some of India’s famous personalities from diverse fields like art, music, literature and theatre. The list includes names like Sai Paranjpe, Amjad Ali Khan, Vishwanathan Anand, Lila Seth, Ruskin Bond and many more. The book beautifully brings out the fact that greatness is achieved through determination and perseverance and that it is possible to scale great heights with these qualities.

---

The Lost World

- By Sir Arthur Conan Doyle
  Recommended for Classes 4 to 7

Professor Challenger believes that he can find a lost world full of dinosaurs in the middle of the Amazon forest. But this world is dangerous to reach, and, once the Professor and his group of explorers arrive, things get even more dangerous. Will they return alive? Find out ...
This is a story of Emma Woodhouse who is beautiful, clever and rich. She lives alone with her father and spends a lot of her time matchmaking for her friends. Will Emma’s matchmaking make her friend Harriet happy?
The Three Musketeers

By Alexandre Dumas
Recommended for Classes 5 to 6

One of Alexandre Dumas’s most famous books, ‘The Three Musketeers’ is the story of Young d’Artagnan, who comes to Paris with a dream – to become a King’s Musketeer. He soon befriends three brave soldiers. Can the four of them fight against the evil plans of their enemies? Read the book to find out!

The Tempest

By William Shakespeare
Recommended for Classes 4 to 6

William Shakespeare’s only play with an original story, ‘The Tempest’ is the story of Prospero, the Duke of Milan, and his daughter Miranda, who are far away from home, alone on an island. Prospero awaits justice for the wrong done to him by his brother and friend, twelve years ago. Read the book to find out if Prospero gets what he wants.
Story Building

By Jane Spiro

Recommended for teachers

This book gives teachers practical guidance in language teaching through series of activities which includes speaking and writing skills, reporting verbs, direct speech, letters, diaries etc.

---

Screamer to Sweet

By Lorraine Thomas

Recommended for teachers

Book for young parents who are having “nappy nightmare” and “dreaming of blissful sleep”. It describes 100 easy steps to go from “infant inferno” to tamed tot” it will help to tackle crisis and echos with a no nonsense action plan that will help to tame those toddlers.
Bullying and Harrasment

By Frank Scott-Margaret
Recommended for Classes for teachers

It contains all of the relevant issues around Bullying and Harrasment in the work place. This book is informative and easy to read.

Drama and Improvisation

By Ken Wilson
Recommended for teachers

This book will help teachers who are interested in using drama in the classroom. It is designed to enliven English classes through drama activities and to activate students imagination and enhance their creativity. It is a guide in key aspects of language teaching.
Conversation

By Rob Nolasco

Recommended for Classes for teachers

The book uses the characteristics of native-speaker conversation to form a basis for teaching the skills of speaking. It is a useful source of ideas to supplement any coursebook. It aims to develop students' ability to speak English fluently and confidently.

Gandhi : Ek Jeevan

By Krishan Kriplani

Recommended for General Book

The book is about Mahatma Gandhi. It contains series of lessons dealing with different shades of Gandhiji’s life.
Train Your Brain : Puzzle Book

By Menso Kids
Recommended for Classes for teachers

This puzzle book contains IQ questions to test logical reasoning of a child. The book is packed with questions to test child’s verbal and numerical reasoning. Very colourful and attraction book.

Around The World In Eighty Days

By Jules Verne
Recommended for Classes 3 to 5

This is one of Jules Verne’s Most Exciting stories. Phileas Foff must get back to London by December 21st or lose all his money. With the help of his servant, Passepartout, Fogg travels in many ways – from train to elephant – and he has some surprising adventures on the way. An interesting read!
Madhumakkhi Ke Anokhe Kaam

By I.S. Farukhi
Recommended for Classes 2 to 3
A very interesting and a thorough description of how a honeybee makes honey. It is well-illustrated and gives a complete picture in an interesting manner.

Jungle Ki Aawaz

By Jainender Kumar
Recommended for Classes for 3 to 5
Story of a life in jungle narrated in a very interesting and impressive manner.
Gonu Jha Ke Kisse
- By Taranand Viyogi
  Recommended for Classes 2 to 3
A tale of Gonu written in a very interesting and an illustrated manner.

Kahaniyan Kahawaton Ki
- By Pratap Anam
  Recommended for Fiction