About The Author

Shyam Dua, born on 26th December, 1955 in Gurgaon (Haryana) in a middle class family. Since his childhood, he has a very creative mind. After completing his graduation, he always wanted to do something in the field of creative writing and book publishing. So, because of his intense knowledge, he got a job in a publishing house in Ahmedabad. While working there, he felt to publish some interesting books for children. For this reason, he started his own publishing house. In the beginning, he struggled a lot, but gradually, he embarked on a journey of growth. Now his company, Tiny Tot Publications, has produced more than 2000 titles especially for children that include The Ramayana, The Great Mahabharata and 100 Bible Stories for children. The Lives & Teachings of Great Ten Sikh Gurus’ is his latest book.
